SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

MOTHER ARIADNA PAPERS

This collection consists of materials relating to the history of the Bogoroditse-Vladimirskaia zhenskaia obitel' (convent) in Harbin and Shanghai, China, and San Francisco, California. There are also biographical materials relating to Abbess Rufina, Ariadna's predecessor, who founded the convent in Harbin in 1924 and led it through its first 13 years (Rufina died in Shanghai in 1937). The convent remained in the care of Abbess Ariadna through the Second World War, evacuation from China and reestablishment in San Francisco in 1948.

Detailed processing and preservation microfilming for these materials were made possible by a generous grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities and by matching funds from the Hoover Institution and Museum of Russian Culture. The grant also provides depositing a microfilm copy in the Hoover Institution Archives. The original materials and copyright to them (with some exceptions) are the property of the Museum of Russian Culture, San Francisco. A transfer table indicating corresponding box and reel numbers is appended to this register.

The Hoover Institution assumes all responsibility for notifying users that they must comply with the copyright law of the United States (Title 17 United States Code) and Hoover Rules for the Use and Reproduction of Archival Materials.
